

June 1, 2019

On a bright and early Saturday morning, residents volunteered to assist the Mangilao Mayor's Office in beautifying the village. The team began at Shell Gas Station Mangilao and picked up trash all the way to Santa Teresita Catholic Church. A big thanks to the residents who gave their time to help revitalize our surroundings!

Tritons Help Out!

June 12 & 13, 2019

A group of our residents volunteered for this year's English Adventure Program. Students visiting from Korea came over to Guam to experience and learn about the culture. The program consisted of campus tours, marine biology presentations, coconut husking demonstrations, coconut candy making, and teambuilding activities. Thank you to those residents who volunteered, and we hope you had fun!

Laundry Rooms

Great news! Our brand-new laundry machines came in this month and are available for use. Dorm 1 laundry room is at the front of the male wing and has two washers and dryers. Dorm 2 also has two of each, located at the end of the 1st floor male wing. Dorm 3 has four washers and dryers at the middle of the 1st floor male wing. Each cycle is priced at $2.00. Coin exchange is available at the main office Monday to Friday from 8am to 5pm. Please keep the facilities clean and be courteous!

Welcome!

This summer, we have students joining us from various universities and programs, some of which include Jeju and Semyung University, University of Connecticut, and Ohio State University. Here's a little bit about some of our visitors, and be sure to welcome them!

Meet your RA

Noah Taitano has been an RA for 1 year. He is a Pre-Nursing major and is part of the ROTC and PIP programs. Originally from Guam, Noah decided to stay at the dorms because of its convenience, as he has to be up early for PT. Some of his hobbies include boxing and playing video games. Noah also loves his son Panther Jr., aka PJ, who is an American Bully.

Stephanie is from Lindale, Texas studying Public Health at Emory University. This summer she is interning at DPHSS under a program that ensures we have the tools and resources to monitor disease patterns. Some of her hobbies include jogging, hiking, and reading.

Kiersten is studying Environmental Policy and Decision Making at Ohio State University. She is an extension intern this summer at CNAS doing invasive species research on coconut rhinoceros beetles. She enjoys playing sand volleyball, snorkeling, and hiking.

Marisa is 2nd year medical student pursuing an M.D. at the University of Connecticut. Her undergraduate degrees are in Chemical Engineering and Molecular and Cellular Biology. This summer she is conducting research with DPHSS's STD/HIV program, which is a needs assessment study with the goal of making contraceptive options more accessible and affordable. Some of her hobbies are going to the beach, hiking, reading, playing board games, and watching Friends and Grey's Anatomy reruns.
