Meet Your Officers

Residence Halls

Month of September Issue #6

Welcome Back Party

This month we elected two more residents to complete our set of officers for the Residence Halls Governing Council (RHGC). Their team will be spear heading a lot of fun activities such as movie nights, game days, hikes, and even parties! Here's a chance to get to know them, and don't hesitate to share some of your ideas for more events!

Aimie
President

Aimie Omreng Sid Oilouch, also known as Omreng, is an aspiring environmental engineer who hopes to run Palau's solid waste management system in the future. She enjoys writing, painting, playing the uke, baking, watching anime, and playing with her dog, Lilo.

Wynona Tahira Ewatal, who a also goes by "Arihat," is currently majoring in Communications and Writing. Her dream career is to become a World Health Organization Consultant or an Ambassador of Palau to Samoa. She loves cheers, smiles, and laughter.

Wynona
Vice President

Hideichi
Treasurer

Hideichi Mori, more commonly known as Hide, comes from the island of Chuuk. He is also a civil engineering major, who eventually wants to be a storyteller. Some of his hobbies include enjoying music, drawing, and drinking sakau.

Upcoming Events

Oct. 4— Movie Night

Oct. 11— Room Inspection

Oct. 12— PUBG Tournament

Oct. 25— Room Inspection

Oct. 31— Halloween

Numbers to Know

G4S Campus security

888-2456

Suicide Crisis Hotline

647-8833

Guam Police Department

472-8911

Meet your RA

Leedia Ngirawes, also known as Ime, has been an RA for 2 years She's a Criminal Justice major who aspires to be a lawyer or prosecutor. Her many hobbies include playing sports such as volleyball or baseball, hiking, swimming, fishing, and dancing. She lives by the motto: "It doesn't matter how slowly you go as long as you don't stop. Be kind, be humble, smile often, keep honest, be thankful always and never stop learning. With God everything is possible"
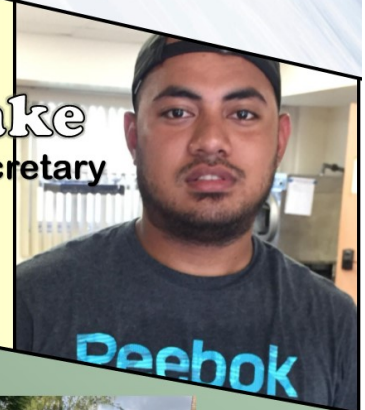

Jake Manuel is from the island of Kosrae, and you can call him Jake for short ;) He is a Tropical Agriculture major and wants to be a farmer, businessman, and conservationist. In his free time, Jake likes to play basketball and softball as well as do photography and farm.

Jake
Secretary

Tritons Help Out!

Our community service projects this August were painting and cleaning benches around campus and volunteering at the International Coastal Cleanup at Ensa Beach. Thanks to all the residents who came out to support!

International Coastal Cleanup

Campus Painting